The Drug Education Forum (DEF):

- Does not necessarily endorse educators, trainers and projects contained within this site, but its purpose is to enable you to gain easy access to trainers in order to help plan appropriate drug interventions and training programmes. We recommend that you read the 'Use of External Contributors in Drug Education' section before contacting the trainers on the database or planning any training event.
- Has set 3 criteria that individuals must meet in order for them to be entered at the site the criteria are;
  1. Have a current CRB disclosure
  2. Have been to a recent DEF Induction day
  3. Provide proof of any qualifications stated within individual portfolios. The chartered Institute of Personnel (1998) has estimated that 1 in 8 candidates exaggerate or falsify their qualifications. The Hertfordshire DEF insists that trainers/educators provide documentary proof of the qualifications listed in their portfolio.
- Cannot take responsibility for the security or actions of the educators and trainers listed.
- Cannot guarantee that the information is up to date and accurate, however, every effort will be made to ensure that correct information is supplied and is updated regularly.
- Cannot accept liability for misleading or inaccurate information or omissions of information given to us by external information providers.
- Has the right to remove any individual educator, trainer or theatre company from the database.
- Web sites have been checked for suitability but the Hertfordshire Drug Education Forum cannot be responsible for their contents or links. All the web site addresses and contents are subject to change.
